VARSITY 40 HOLY NAME SOCIETY 25

The varsity journeyed to South Bend Feb. 27 to meet the Holy Name Society Club of that city. The varsity were full of determination and went into the fray bound to remove the shame of our previous defeats on their two former trips into the enemies territory.

The game started with a rush Holy Name slipping the first basket through the ring. After Holy Name made the score 3-0 in their favor the varsity men tapped a keg of ginger, got on their fiery steeds and by some clever passwork and close defensive tactics overcame their opponents' increasing margin and romped away from them the first half ending 22-12 in St. Joseph's favor.

The second half started with the vim of the first. Holy Name urged on by the loud and hearty cheers of their loyal rooters began a defensive and more aggressive game. Voelkers and Guthrie had their hands full in breaking up the passwork of Deery and Schellinger while Monahan slipped up the floor occasionally and slapped the ball through the rings.

Line-up and summary:

St. Joseph		Holy Name
Schellinger, Kihm	F	Sullivan
McGinty, Murphy	F	Hagerty
Deery	C	Burke
		M. Guthrie
Monahan	G	M. Guthrie
		E. Guthrie
Beckman	G	Voelkers, Wolf, Vennet

Field goals: Schellinger 4 Deery 6 Monahan 6 McGinty 2 Murphy 1 Sullivan 3 Hagerty 5 M. Guthrie 3 Free throws Schellinger 1 Monahan 1 Sullivan 1 Hagerty 2.

Umpire Fitzgerald.

SOUTH BEND 32 ST. JOE 17

St. Joe's 1914 schedule came to a grand close Saturday night in the most farsical game of the season. The Varsity's loyal rooters did not know whether to root or hoot as Capt. Deery tried vainly to glue his lengthy digits to the sphere and Monahan, Schellinger and Murphy made remarkable efforts to keep away from the ball. All this time the visitors were displaying speed and teamwork and locating the rings from all angles. It was a sad spectacle to climax the season's work. History repeated itself—the men failed to keep in condition to the end of the season.

The team had three practices since the game at South Bend; St. Joe's victory in that encounter was so decisive that the return game here was counted a certain victory. Deery's work alone is excusable; he had been ill for several days, and left the infirmary on the eve of the game.

The sad tale in figures;

Field goals—Sullivan 4 Hagerty 5 M. Guthrie 3 Guthrie 1 Schellinger 2 Murphy 1 Deery 2 Monahan 2 Free Throws—Sullivan 1 Hagerty 3 Guthrie 1 Schellinger 3.

Referee Fitzgerald.
Umpire Luckey.

The Season's Record.

At first blush the record of the Varsity for the season just closed is a bit disappointing considering that the majority of the games were played on the home floor. However if we consider that the team was handicapped in not having an efficient coach, and that sickness has haunted the team throughout the season we may be proud of these figures:

Played	Won	Lost	Pct.
10	6	4	600

Field Goals—Deery 59, Schellinger 32, Monahan 34, Schall 7, McGinty 7, Murphy 4, Maloney 3, Mattingly 1, Beckman 1.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

Silverstein and Co. traveling under the name of II. Latins threw a real scare into the league champion's camp on Feb. 21, but that 1000 per. was not to be broken and the 17-7 count favored the Sophies. Maloney saved the day with four ringers.

That Washington's Birthday affair between the Seniors and III. Latins was a thriller, as the score indicates.

Kihm, the Seniors' only resort on the offensive, was kept well under cover by Stewart, which explains the Seniors defeat. Jack Annen was "there" for the freshies with seven points while Kihm managed to break away for three baskets. Daniel's hard playing featured. Score 11-8.

Another tight game was staged Feb. 25. by the Commercial and the II. Latins. Not a field goal was registered during the first half, a record for the season. It would be impartial to discriminate as to the stars of this hair-raising and interesting game. Score 12-10.

Amid an avalanche of cheering those hustling II. Latins kept up their own wonderful work by humbling the Seniors on March 5. Fecher held Kihm to one measly basket, which tells the tale. Silverstein made his team's six points for the first half, while Lause added six in rapid fire fashion in the final period. Fettig who replaced Farrel starred for the Seniors.

If Feb. 7. is not Manager Beck's birthday it must be a lucky star day for some III. Latin. Seven field goals apiece to the credit of Murphy, Annen and Fackler, against a team as strong as the aggressive bookkeepers is the best showing the Freshies have made this year. The Com. made a spurt in the second half but could not offset the pace of victors. Score 44-29.

Academic League.

NAVY 7.

YALE 4.

Feb. 18.—In a game in which neither side could hit the big curtain not to mention the 18 inch ring the Navy and Yale teams made a formal debut and when the music stopped Navy made the biggest hit 7-4.

CARLISLE 19.

ARMY 12.

Feb. 21.—Carlisle added another victory to its string when it clashed with Keller's force of players. Although beaten the Army fought a great uphill battle.

ARMY 14.

YALE 11.

Feb. 25.—The Army and Yale fought a finish fight. The first half ended in a draw but Yale came back strong in the first part of the second half but the Army withstood the force of the blows and lead out in the final count 14-11.

NAVY 10.

HARVARD 20.

Feb. 27.—In the first half Navy made Harvard earn its money leading them by one point. Navy's guard weakened in the second half and Harvard doubled the score. Donahue starred for Navy while Magsam's team was in the game as a unit man and man.

CARLISLE 16.

NAVY 6.

March 6.—Carlisle closed its season with a hard earned victory over Navy, The game was more interesting than the score indicates. V. Kanney starred with 5 baskets while the Navy machine worked without any effect.

HARVARD 43.

YALE 8.

March 7.—Harvard finished the 1914 schedule in a glorious victory over the downtrodden and luckless Yaleites. What started out to be a close and exciting game turned out to be a run away for Harvard. Hellen had the magic on 10 baskets while Mashek and Downey were in the lime light.

	Played	Won	Lost	Pct.
Harvard	8	7	1	875
Carlisle	8	7	1	875
Army	8	4	4	500
Navy	8	2	6	250
Yale	8	0	8	000

Delor	9	20	2.22

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

LAURELS 12—IMPERIALS 10.

Feb. 20.—The Imperials and the Laurels hooked up in one of the tightest and fastest games played in the Junior League. The game was anybody's up to the last whistle but the Laurels won out by a final spurt.

CARDINALS 5—LAURELS 18.

Feb. 28 —The Laurels drove the last nail in their pennant staff when they rumped away from the Cardinals. Stich featured with lucky long shots, but the shooting from a distance lost many points for the Laurels; more pass work nets more baskets.

IMPERIALS 18—BLUE BELLS 15.

Mgr. Ambos' team was not at its best when it tackled the down trodden Imperials. Leriger ran Haley a merry chase in acquiring points but the Fates were with Haley helping him make eight baskets against Leriger's six. The game was hard fought and much ginger and good basket ball was displayed for a Junior game.

LAURELS 22—BLUE BELLS 10.

March 2.—The Laurels closed their 1914 season with a glorious victory over their nearest competitors, the Blue Bells. Seyfried had the slickery elm on the rings, rolling in 7 lucky baskets.

THAT track team we mentioned in our last issue will be organized just as soon as the weather permits. Not only the seniors but also the juniors should take up the various sports; great results cannot be expected this year, but if given a good start the boys should be able to make a good showing next year.

Spring Thoughts by Bunny.

Well boys, what's up next? It looks like Spring;
(To make it rhyme) Dont you hear the birds sing?
The time is a' coming for baseball and bat,
And beautiful weather means a free day, how's that?
Our classy new Gym, 't will soon be in use,
All ready to take the fellows' good abuse.
I've only one fear — will it be in the way
Of those long distance clouts of our own Varsity?
Bat boy Red Dolan is a happy little man;
He hardly can wait till he dusts off the pan.
These bright sunny days are a cheer to us all;
They carry the fever for flowers and baseball.
Our track team is there — all it wants is a show.
Just give us the weather and our athletes will go.
Now Spring is a'coming, just open your eyes,
Forget all your troubles, and nix on the sighs!

LOCALS.

Visitor—Would you kindly show me around the main building?
Fuetterer—That depends,do you mean the infirmary?
Squire—Say, Slim, why don't you take vocal lessons? I heard that you have a beautiful voice.
Whitcomb—Squire, to tell the truth, I couldn't carry a note to the bank.
Roof—What caused the death of so many in coal mines last year?
Angus—Why, they died of the interruption of the respiratory movements culminating in acute asphyxia and apnoea.
Roof—Is that disease common to miners?
Farrel— Why they suffocated, you boob.
S. Taller— I have a terrible pain in the back of my neck.
Infirmarian (examining him) — You must have your tonsils removed at once.
S. Taller—But the doctor cut out my tonsils two years ago.
Don't forget your Irish friends on March 17. Post cards 6 for 5c. at the Candy Store.
"Pink Eyes"
Wonderly, Wonderly, where is he at?
O'er on the south side with eyes like a cat.
And Johnny the Gypsey, where did he go?
Over with Wonderly making a show.
Victor the candy king, sedate and so wise,
Keeping a watch o'er the rest of the guys.
Kuntz the four-eyed and wise looking duck,
O'er with the rest you'll find that old mutt.
Falk the barbarian who hails from the south
Is contin'ly fretting 'bout feeding his mouth.
And Eugene the leader with eyes almost well,
Keeps on playing cards and cheating like, well—
Thus the Pinkeys, so many, so happy, so gay
Keep watching the door for Vic all the day.
Not condescending to live with the herd,
Though blind. yet joyful we're free like a bird.
